Encompass Group Offers Anti-Embolism Stockings with Patented Rightway® System

McDonough, GA–(April 2011)–Encompass Group’s patented Rightway® System for Anti-Embolism Stockings can be found exclusively in the Albahealth UltraCARE® product line which is part of the Starsystem® comprehensive suite of products focused on DVT prevention . The Rightway System combines superior fit and ease of use to address patient compliance and the application needs of clinicians.

The Rightway System is the first true innovation in the market in over 25 years and is comprised of a ribbed ankle crest to prevent skin shearing, colored heel guides to assist with proper placement on the foot and a unique heel pouch specifically designed for added comfort and ease of application.

Additional features of the UltraCARE stockings include two-way stretch fabric, a knit-in alignment indicator, and a top view inspection port.

“Patient compliance is key to successful DVT prevention,” said Jennifer Woody, Encompass Group Albahealth Marketing Manager, “We are pleased to offer the UltraCARE Anti-Embolism Stocking which fits the Encompass mission of, ‘Better care starts with safety and comfort’.”
