Encompass Group Donates Much Needed Products to Haiti

McDonough, GA–(February 2010)– Encompass Group, LLC has donated much-needed products to aid the earthquake relief in Haiti. Twelve skids of vital hospital textiles such as OR towels and wrappers, baby blankets, OR scrubs, and blankets; totaling $35,000 in value has been shipped to AGA Corp in Miami.

“A charity organization called Sow-A-Seed will consolidate these skids and transport them to Haiti to be distributed to the neediest victims.” said Carlos Perez of AGA, “Everyone at AGA would like to extend our heartfelt gratitude for this generous donation. These things are greatly needed in Haiti by the victims of the earthquake.”

“We are happy to help in any way we can,” said Encompass Group Vice President of Marketing, Joe Przepiora. “At Encompass, our mission is always to help healthcare and hospitality providers create safe and comfortable environments for patients and their families. Helping provide comfort to the earthquake victims in Haiti fits that mission perfectly.”
